CMML Distinctives

Local Church-Centered— CMML serves local New Testament assemblies and the missionaries that they commend to Gospel work.

Faith-Based—CMML and the missionaries we serve practice faith-based missions, meaning we look to the Lord alone to supply for their financial needs.

Service Organization— CMML exists to provide services local assemblies are not able to provide themselves as they support, care and oversee their commended missionaries.

What We Do

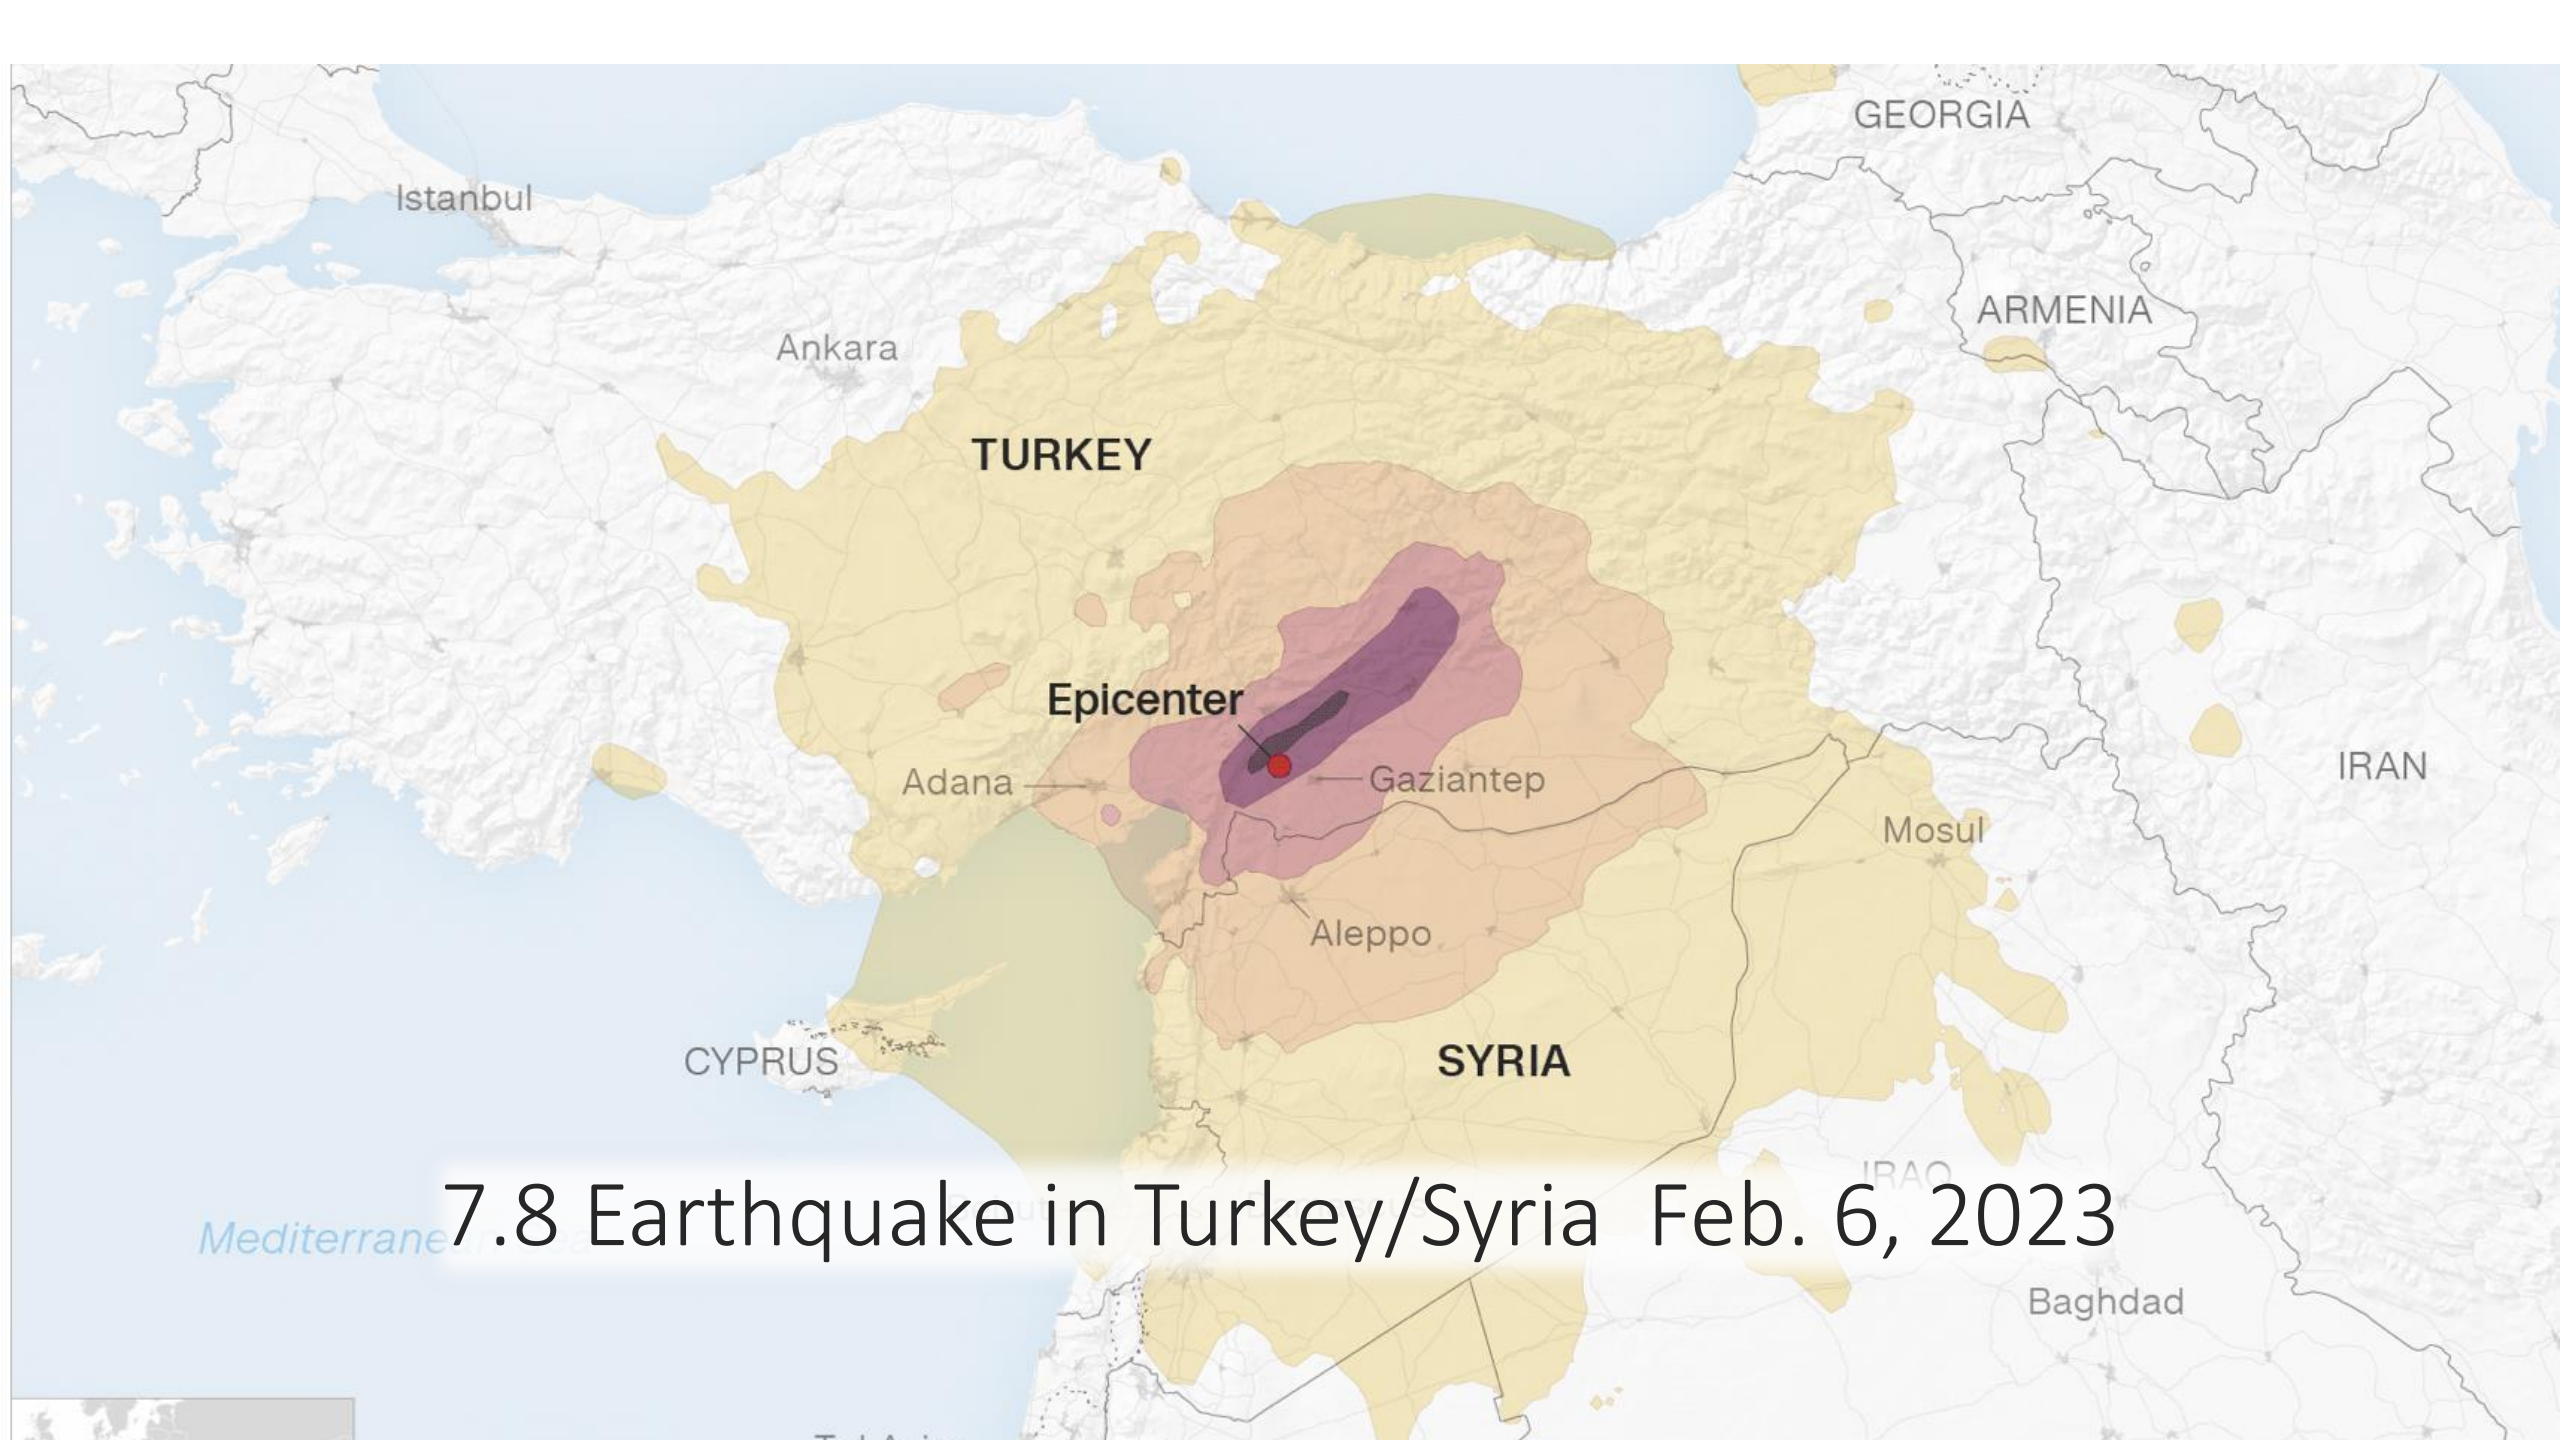

1. Encourage prayer for missionary work.
2. Distribute gifts for missionaries from churches, groups, and individuals.
3. Encourage and stimulate interest in missions.
4. Equip potential and current missionaries.
5. Encourage, serve, and advise missionaries and assembly leaders in overseas mission activities.

Urban Focus

A dense, vibrant street scene in Hong Kong, likely in the Mong Kok area, characterized by a multitude of colorful, illuminated signs and billboards. The signs feature various Chinese characters and English text, including 'Dragon Court', 'MX', '六福珠寶 LUKFOOK JEWELLERY', 'Love Lens', 'EXCHANGE', '名甲', and 'CREATOR'. The street is filled with a diverse crowd of people, including men, women, and children, some looking towards the camera and others engaged in their own activities. The overall atmosphere is one of a bustling, commercial hub.
